You have the opportunity to be among the very first students to enjoy our brand new building, designed by internationally renowned architect Renzo Piano. His architecture reflects our establishment’s project: to bring together the scientific disciplines and bring students into contact with science. You will be taught within the teaching and research (“TAR” or DER in French) departments, which provide early and immersive contact with the world of research by making extensive use of laboratories along your study path. Our teams will provide the majority of you with support in achieving your doctorate.

Within the Université Paris-Saclay, the School fits into a unique scientific ecosystem that alone represents 13% of all French research. Science and knowledge no longer have any borders: the presence of many foreign students on our campus is therefore also an opportunity.

During 2020, a new challenge emerged in the context of the health crisis: that of preserving the health of those who study within our walls. We trust that you will protect those around you by following the distancing measures and applying the instructions you will be given at the start of the academic year.

Normaliens and international students, I wish you all a great start to the year!

A multidisciplinary Grande École for careers in research and higher education

ENS Paris-Saclay is at one and the same time a school and a research centre with an international and multidisciplinary outlook. It offers students an early and immersive contact with research and mobilises the laboratories in their training in basic sciences, human and social sciences and engineering sciences.

The ENS Paris-Saclay Diploma, which is prepared in four years, has the ambition to lead normaliens toward a doctoral degree. Within the University of Paris-Saclay, it coordinates the graduate school of research and higher education.

New eco-system, new impetus

In 2020, the School moved to the «plateau de Saclay» in an innovative and bioclimatic building designed by the world-renowned architect Renzo Piano.

It reinvents itself with the introduction of the teaching and research departments, the creation of new laboratories and its PhD track excellence program.

Finally, the Scène de recherche offers a new place for exploring and sharing the great challenges of building bridges between the arts, sciences and society. At one and the same time a professional theatre and a platform for creation and research linked with the Education and Research Departments, it embodies the high cultural and artistic standards of the School. Throughout the year it offers a programme of rich, diversified events, together with course provision for the students - arts workshops, lectures, cross-disciplinary teaching units.
1700 enrolled

300 doctoral students

300 foreign students and doctoral students

280 researchers and teacher-researchers

220 administrative and technical staff

84% success rate in passing the agrégation, the French competitive national examination

70% continue to doctoral studies

Education in the 11 départements covers a large spectrum of disciplines, with close relationship with research laboratories.

To access the building, you must have your card with you. It will also allow you access to certain secure areas and to dedicated rooms.

Smoking and vaping are strictly forbidden on the establishment premises and in the garden. Smoking areas are located outside the School.
SIGNALETICS
New building’s signage is based on a system of coordinates to determine the position of each place inside and outside the location.

THE PRINCIPLES OF THE MATRIX
1. The vertical frame is numbered from 01 to 88 (abscissa).
2. The horizontal grid is named from A to Z (ordinates).
3. Column 01 starts on the west side of the building.
4. Row A is located on the south side of the building.

NUMBERING
A local has for coordinates:
- The floor (from -1 to 5) on which it’s located.
- The couple abscissa-ordinates (letter from A to Z – number from 01 to 88 corresponding to its position in plan).
- Sometimes an index (a or b) used to distinguish 2 rooms with the same coordinates.

• NORMALIEN·NE •
internal student recruited by competitive examination or on admission file, who is taking a course leading, if successful, to the award of the ENS Paris-Saclay Diploma

• NORMALIEN·NE ÉLÈVE •
student recruited by competitive examination

We distinguish:
• NORMALIEN·NE ÉLÈVE •
admitted on a foreign certificate in receipt of a grant
• NORMALIEN·NE ÉLÈVE •
remunerated during their training as a civil servant, committed to 10 years’ service

• NORMALIEN·NE ÉTUDIANT·E •
any ENS student admitted on admission file and/or interview

Registration

Contribution to student and campus life (CVEC)

Before beginning the administrative registration process each student must obtain his certificate of confirmation of settlement of the CVEC, by payment or exemption. This allows, for example, to pay for preventative medicine and appointments with the psychologist, to set up a social assistance fund or else to support student community projects.

» messervices.etudiant.gouv.fr

The following are exempted:
• grant-funded students, beneficiaries of a social criteria allowance
• grant-funded students, funded by a grant from the French government
• students on international exchanges and Erasmus
• students in continuous education
• student refugees
• students benefiting from subsidiary protection
• students registered as asylum seekers who have the right to remain in the country

The status of trainee civil servant is not exempt from payment of the CVEC.

In addition, if you become eligible for exemption from the contribution during the university year, you can obtain a refund of the contribution you have already paid from the CROUS.

Administration

Administrative registration (until 30 October) is made online on the Coriandre tool and includes the submission of supporting documents. Once the costs of your file are verified by the DSVE, you must pay your registration fees.

» scolarite.ens-paris-saclay.fr

If you are normalien-élève or normalien-étudiant: once you have registered your Diploma on Coriandre, you must register for the activities for the ENS Paris-Saclay Diploma on the ADN application.

» si.ens-paris-saclay.fr/
diplome-ens-paris-saclay/

⚠️ If you are a normalien-élève do not forget to complete your support file and send it to the HRD!

ENS Paris-Saclay Diploma

Innovative teaching

Normaliens registered for the ENS Paris-Saclay Diploma, which confers a Master’s degree, benefit from four years’ study at the School.

The actors in your educational project, you define the methods for acquiring the skills you wish to acquire in a special course of study designed for continual exchange with the teaching teams.

The Diploma

The award of the Diploma is based on certification of a coherent range of activities:

- common core activities
- a specific course year (SCY) to direct your course towards higher education and research, international or multi-disciplinary research
- activities complementary to this specific course year allowing you to complete the different competences required for the Diploma (higher education, research, multi-disciplinary, international)
- optional supplementary activities

The ADN online tool allows you to select and save the Diploma activities and to validate their progressive completion during the course of study.

Libraries

Central Library

It is accessible to all students and staff at the School.

- Hours
  - Monday: 10.00–22.00
  - Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday: 9.00–22.00
  - Friday, Saturday: 9.00–18.00

- Location
  - ground floor, south-east building

Durkheim Library

This is accessible to everyone, but is intended primarily for doctoral students and teaching and research staff in Humanities and Social Sciences.

- Hours
  - Monday, Tuesday, Thursday: 14.00–17.30
  - Friday: 14.00–17.00

- Location
  - 3rd floor, south-east building

FOCUS

The FOCUS catalogue allows you to access all the books, e-books, scientific journals, articles and databases available at ENS Paris-Saclay and in the libraries and resource centres at Université Paris-Saclay.

All the libraries at Université Paris-Saclay are available free of charge to all students and staff.

- biblio@ens-paris-saclay.fr

Some libraries in Paris are also open on Sunday: this is the case for the Bibliothèque nationale de France [National Library of France] a public information library and Central Library for the International University Campus in Paris.

Languages

Practical Languages Centre

The Practical Languages Centre is part of the School's Languages Department. It offers free evening classes (after 17:00) at beginner, intermediate and advanced levels for students and staff in German, Chinese, Spanish, Italian and Russian.

- ens-paris-saclay.fr/etudes/centre-de-langues

Contact
- secretariat.lang@ens-paris-saclay.fr

⚠️ Language classes are optional courses; however, students may request at the start of the semester that the courses they are taking are assessed and validated for their optional courses.

Language courses for foreign students

Courses are provided in French and English; it is therefore imperative to master them:
- At ENS Paris-Saclay: the languages centre provides free courses in French as a Foreign Language (FLE), for 2 hours/week throughout the year
- At Université Paris-Saclay, offer accessible via:
  - univeriste-paris-saclay.fr/campus-life/international-welcome-desk/apprendre-le-francais
- At Science Accueil: French as a Foreign Language (FLE) courses in small groups at different levels are offered. Two series of sessions are organised, one from October to February, the other from March to July. This body also offers 'à la carte' courses
  - science-accueil.org/apprendre-le-francais

IT and digital services

IT account

When you complete your administrative registration, you will be given your ENS login details. They give you access to the establishment's virtual private network (VPN) and also to all the IT resources:
- e-mail account: firstname.lastname@ens-paris-saclay.fr
- e-mail services: diary, personal address book, directory
- Internet connection
- Intranet
- Digital work environment comprising a secured network space, a system for sending large files, access to administrative applications, online documentary resources, etc.
- Specific software depending on department (Matlab, Mathematica, etc.)

A charter sets out the conditions for the correct use of IT at ENS Paris-Saclay. To consult it or for more information:
- intranet.ens-paris-saclay.fr/version-francaise/ressources-numeriques

Internet

All users with an IT account at the ENS can connect to the following wireless networks:
- Eduroam: for students and staff of the School or partner establishments in France
  - eduroam.fr
  - eduroam.org/where
- ENS-invité: allows students and staff at ENS Paris-Saclay to sponsor persons from outside the establishment, in order to give them access to the network

To connect to ENS-invité:
- Select 'ens-invité' (WiFi) and launch the search engine
- Click on the ‘s’inscrire [register]’ at the foot of the page and enter your surname, name and e-mail address, as well as your contact address at ENS Paris-Saclay

Computer rooms, known as ‘shared rooms’, each with 24 computers, are also accessible with your student card:
- MO09
- MM08
- MJ08b (mezzanine, east building)
Dissemination of information

Make sure you use your @ens-paris-saclay.fr e-mail address to receive and send information. Please also check it each day because the teaching teams and School services will use it to contact you.

Sending information

The Communications Service passes on news about the events of life on campus for the School community and in its networks (Plateau de Saclay, agglomeration community, etc.).

You can contact it (communication@ens-paris-saclay.fr) to:
- Publish on the websites, Intranet, in the internal newsletter and on the social networks
- Pass on information for the Université Paris-Saclay newsletter
- Broadcast on the dynamic screen displays installed in the building
- Send an e-mail to all the students and/or staff via the mailing lists
- Check compliance with the graphical charter for the communications media

Student events can also be published directly in the diary on the Université Paris-Saclay website by using the OpenAgenda tool

Stay up to date

- Intranet site
  - intranet.ens-paris-saclay.fr (internal information, access to digital resources, contacts, etc.)
- Internet site
  - ens-paris-saclay.fr (School news, life on campus, governing bodies, courses of study, etc.)

E-learning via Moodle
The Moodle e-learning platform allows you to have access to information of the different activities for the Diploma, in particular the cross-curricular activities which do not come directly under the departments. There you will primarily find the contact details for the activity managers and their operating methods.

Of course, every student registered at ENS Paris-Saclay has access to Moodle. It is also necessary to have registered in the course areas connected with supervised study, which uses the site to send documents or submit course work. Registration is managed by the teaching departments for the educational curriculum and by the APO for cross-disciplinary subjects for the Diploma.

E-learning via Moodle

ENS Paris-Saclay newsletter
The monthly newsletter keeps you up to date on all the School news (planned scientific events, HR information, cultural programme for the Theatre, etc.). It is sent to the @ens-paris-saclay.fr e-mail address.

Expanding your horizons

144 international agreements covering 38 countries

70% of 2019 graduates spent at least two months abroad during their studies at ENS Paris-Saclay

École Normale Supérieure graduates accepted onto the ARPE program for the 2019–2020 year

Going abroad

Resources and meet-ups for travel/study abroad

These are designed to help you open yourself up to new horizons, and find support for your travel plans:

- Welcome day for first-time students (Preamble, September 17)
- FLASHMOB: every semester, the SRI organizes a meeting for students planning to work or study abroad to present opportunities on offer, funding programs and support tools. The first FLASHMOB of the year will be held on Thursday, October 8, 2020!

- Mobility passport: available at the start of the 2020–2021 academic year, this is a practical guide listing the preparation and application procedures for going abroad.
- The “INFO SRI” newsletter
- Intranet portal, “International” section: find all the procedures and documents you’ll need to prepare for your departure, and to finance your stay

Mobility Options

Each graduate is encouraged to get some international experience as part of their studies at the School. This can take several forms:

- Study abroad (including ERASMUS courses)
- Research abroad
- ARPE program
- Embassy internships
- Assistantship
- International double degree

Preparation is key in order to ensure a successful experience of working/studying abroad: the student will have help planning their options from the head of teaching, the teaching team, the course head, the ARPE head and the international point of contact in association with the SRI.

Any international mobility project, whether funded or not, must be brought to the attention of the SRI (ri-outgoing@ens-paris-saclay.fr) and the Education and Student Life Directorate (DSVE, Direction de la scolarité et de la vie étudiante). It will be subject to the approval of the Defence and Security Official.

Funding your project

The SRI administers and centralizes several travel aid programs, in order to keep students informed and help them complete their funding application:

- ens-paris-saclay.fr/etudes/echanges-internationaux/partir-letranger
Coming to study at ENS Paris-Saclay

In 2019, there were 199 international students and 114 international PhD students on campus.

Science Accueil is the partner chosen by ENS Paris-Saclay to provide you with support when moving and getting settled: administrative procedures (residence permits, opening a bank account, choice of health cover, etc.), learning French in a friendly and innovative atmosphere, suggestions for cultural events and activities (theatre, museum, cinema, exhibitions, etc.) to fit a budget.

To benefit from their services, just fill out the contact form on their website: www.science-accueil.org/en/request-of-services-2

Welcome provisions from Université Paris-Saclay

Visa and residence permit

Before your departure
If you are from an EEA member state, you do not need a visa to come and study in France.

If you are not from an EEA member state, you must follow the appropriate procedure:
- If you will be taking the ENS competitive entry exam, you have the option of applying to the French consulate in your place of residence for a student examination visa.
- If you are admitted to our School, go to the French consulate in your place of residence with the letter of admission sent to you. It will enable you to obtain a long-stay visa, equivalent to a residence permit (VLS-TS).
- If you are of one of the following nationalities: Algerian, Beninese, Brazilian, Burkinése, Cameroonian, Chilean, Chinese, Colombian, Comorian, Congolese, Egyptian, American, Gabonese, Guinean, Indian, Indonesian, Iranian, Ivorian, Japanese, Lebanese, Malagasy, Malian, Moroccan, Mauritanian, Mauritian, Mexican, Peruvian, Russian, Senegalese, South Korean, Taiwanese, Tunisian, Turkish or Vietnamese, you fall under the Studies in France (Études en France) procedure.
- If you have obtained funding for your stay in France, you will need to attach the financing certificate to your visa application. ENS Paris-Saclay may provide a certificate for the programs it manages.

If you are a PhD student, you must present a hosting agreement to the Consulate closest to you. For any hosting agreement application, you must provide:
- a passport copy
- a copy of a master’s or PhD degree
- a certificate of funding or proof of available funds (min. €1000/month)
- if applicable: a copy of a contract or promise of employment

As of August 1 2020, you will need to contact our partner, Science Accueil, for all procedures relating to residence permits and their renewal.

After your arrival
International students with a VLS-TS will have to validate their visa within 3 months.

EXPANDING YOUR HORIZONS

Visa and residence permit

Before your departure
If you are from an EEA member state, you do not need a visa to come and study in France.

If you are not from an EEA member state, you must follow the appropriate procedure:
- If you will be taking the ENS competitive entry exam, you have the option of applying to the French consulate in your place of residence for a student examination visa.
- If you are admitted to our School, go to the French consulate in your place of residence with the letter of admission sent to you. It will enable you to obtain a long-stay visa, equivalent to a residence permit (VLS-TS).
- If you are of one of the following nationalities: Algerian, Beninese, Brazilian, Burkinése, Cameroonian, Chilean, Chinese, Colombian, Comorian, Congolese, Egyptian, American, Gabonese, Guinean, Indian, Indonesian, Iranian, Ivorian, Japanese, Lebanese, Malagasy, Malian, Moroccan, Mauritanian, Mauritian, Mexican, Peruvian, Russian, Senegalese, South Korean, Taiwanese, Tunisian, Turkish or Vietnamese, you fall under the Studies in France (Études en France) procedure.
- If you have obtained funding for your stay in France, you will need to attach the financing certificate to your visa application. ENS Paris-Saclay may provide a certificate for the programs it manages.

If you are a PhD student, you must present a hosting agreement to the Consulate closest to you. For any hosting agreement application, you must provide:
- a passport copy
- a copy of a master’s or PhD degree
- a certificate of funding or proof of available funds (min. €1000/month)
- if applicable: a copy of a contract or promise of employment

As of August 1 2020, you will need to contact our partner, Science Accueil, for all procedures relating to residence permits and their renewal.

After your arrival
International students with a VLS-TS will have to validate their visa within 3 months.

Useful informations

Applications

Below are some useful apps to have on your smartphone while you're in France:

RATP

Get the times for the next RER, metro, bus, night bus (noctilien), tram and airport lines, find out the best route to your destination and view the RATP network maps.

Uber

If you need a taxi to go out or get home... or you're lost.

Google Maps

Are you lost in Paris, in Cachan or elsewhere? Use Google Maps to find your way or explore.

What'sApp

If you don’t have a French internet connection yet, connect to a WiFi network and let your family and friends know that you’ve arrived in France and at ENS.

Izly

Pay for your meal at CROUS or your sandwich at the cafeteria.

Doctolib

Find the nearest doctor and make an appointment directly on the app.

Allociné

If you want to see the cinema closest to you, the movies and the possible bookings.

Accommodation

There are several possible types of leasing near the School (social or private landlords, CROUS, private owners) as well as several possible request platforms (Guichet Unique Paris-Saclay, Immojeunes, etc.).

ENS Paris-Saclay ensures that requests are monitored in association with the Guichet Unique Paris-Saclay (GUPS) and the landlords.

Contact
logement@ens-paris-saclay.fr

Accommodation requests must be sent on the GUPS platform, which brings together all the accommodation offers from the different public and private landlords with one or more student residences on or near the Plateau de Saclay.

Offers of accommodation are sent to students in accordance with the availability in the residences 2 to 3 weeks before the required date of taking up the accommodation.

Contact
logement.campus-paris-saclay.fr

gups@crous-versailles.fr

The Immojeune ENS platform lists the requests from students of the School and owners everywhere in France and in the world. It is free and secure.

If you are an international student, our partner, Science Accueil can guide you in your search for accommodation by sending you offers of furnished accommodation suitable for your personal situation.

Near the School
- Residences CROUS: G. Sand et E. Grau (social)
- Residences SERGIC: Twenty (private)
- Residences CESAL: Résidence IV (social) and Joliot-Curie (private)

On the Saclay campus
Apart from GUPS, you can send your request on:
messervices.etudiant.gouv.fr
- Residence CROUS (social):
  - Residence de l’Île – Bures-sur-Yvette
  - Residence Émilie du Châtelet – Gif-sur-Yvette
  - Residence Le Bosquet – les Ulis
  - Residence Les jardins de Fleming – Orsay

Quartier de Palaiseau
- Residence Kley (private)

Palaiseau near RER Massy-Palaiseau
- Residence ECLA (private, places reserved for our students)

Near Paris

Leasing formalities

In order to rent accommodation, you will always be requested to provide:
• a public liability insurance certificate
• an accommodation insurance certificate
• a guarantee provided by your guarantor

⚠️ The guarantor must be solvent and resident in France; if you do not have a guarantor, you may make use of the Visale system. → visale.fr
• Security deposit

This will be returned to you after the end of tenancy inspection report is completed, if you have not damaged your accommodation and have paid all your rent and charges. Note that rent is paid exclusively by bank transfer.

Above all, do not close your bank account before you have settled all the charges!
• Start and end of tenancy inspections
• Signature of a lease contract drafted by the owner of the accommodation
• Documentary evidence of study or admission to ENS for applications to GUPS and CROUS and the residences, where the school has reserved places
• RQTH [Recognition of Disabled Worker Status] required as documentary evidence for an application for accommodation for persons with reduced mobility (PMR accommodation).

Kantine – CROUS restaurant

✦ Location
Ground floor / Mezzanine, South-East building

The Kantine is a self-service restaurant managed by CROUS.

It is an area where all the students, teachers, researchers and Plateau de Saclay officials can eat.

Kfé – cafeteria

✦ Location
Ground floor / Mezzanine, South-East building

Provisional hours
Every day from 07.30 to 18.30, or 22.00, if there is a performance at the Theatre.

The menu, which will develop as the year goes by, responds to current eating habits (healthy, sustainable, predominantly vegetarian, organic and local) and to the challenges of sustainable development, for example in its waste disposal system.

Izly account

Izly allows you to pay your expenses on French campuses: meals, photocopiers, vending machines.

An online account is created at the time of the payment of the CVEC and will follow you throughout your studies. It can be consulted and recharged on the website and on the mobile application.

The student card acts as a multi-service payment card, but the application also allows you to generate a QR code to pay for your consumption.

  ➢ rdv-psychologue@ens-paris-saclay.fr

Relais Handicap

Managed by the Project Manager, Laëtitia Gentot, and the disabled persons’ correspondent, Doreen Kamga, the Relais Handicap disabled persons’ centre deals with reception and assistance to students and staff.
In particular, it ensures the development of a Support Plan for Disabled Students (PAEH), which organises the re-organisation of various study facilities and examinations.
Contact by e-mail as early as possible:
  ➢ relais.handicap@ens-paris-saclay.fr

Social Security

Social Security comprises medical insurance, which refunds 70% of your medical costs. To receive a complete refund, you must subscribe to additional healthcare cover (or a mutual policy), which takes charge of the remaining 30%.

If you are a normalien-élève

As a trainee civil servant you are obliged to become affiliated with MGEN.

Contact
  ➢ MGEN de l’Essonne
  1 rue Pasteur
  91000 Evry Courcouronnes
tél: 36 76

⚠️ If you are absent due to illness, a medical certificate must be sent to the HRD (normalien.drh@ens-paris-saclay.fr)

If you are a normalien-étudiant

Since the Orientation et réussite des étudiants law was promulgated on 8 March 2018 you no longer have to take steps to obtain cover from Social Security, which is now free.
Make sure that your mutual insurance company has your current information (postal address, bank details, etc.).

Caisse d’Allocation Familiale (CAF)

As a student, depending on your income, you may benefit from a variety of types of financial assistance from the Caisse d’Allocation Familiale.
Do not hesitate to contact them and create your file: ➢ caf.fr

Specific cases
  ➢ If you were already registered at a French higher education establishment in 2019-2020, you remain with the same Social Security regime: there is no need to do anything.
  ➢ If you have come to study for a period of less than three months, you must be covered by the health insurance of your country of origin or by private insurance.
  ➢ Holders of the European Health Insurance Card may not register with the French Social Security system.
Prevention

Student Prevention Network

This assists students in vulnerable situations or with mental disorders and coordinates the prevention measures and the methodology to adopt once the situation has been discovered. It comprises:
• one member of the teaching staff from each department, known as a «correspondent»
• one «coordinator» with a direct link to the Vice-President with responsibility for student life

The list of correspondents is available on the School’s Intranet.

Sexual harassment

ENS Paris-Saclay asserts its commitment to the fight against sexual violence and sexism through awareness and preventative campaigns, in particular by means of the Prevention, Orientation, Awareness and Information working group (POAI). Its role is to inform and raise awareness on issues of sexual harassment. It works closely with the CLASHES association.

Victim or witness of this situation?
You can contact:
→ stopHS@ens-paris-saclay.fr
Pascale Rialland
Manager of the Equal Rights Project
→ pascale.rialland@ens-paris-saclay.fr
You can also contact the SPN correspondent from your department or the anti-sexual harassment supervisors of the SO, or consult the material in the Prevention, Health and Safety section on the Intranet.

Hygiene and safety

Several courses are offered during the year: lifeguard, workplace first-aider, proper use of fire extinguishers, evacuation manager, etc.
• If you are interested, contact the Training Correspondent:
→ kholoud.alhamwi@ens-paris-saclay.fr
• For more specific requests, contact the Prevention Counsellor:
→ patricia.bertho@ens-cachan.fr

In the event of an accident or incident, the role of the prevention assistants is to record the details in the Occupational Health and Safety Register. They are also responsible for listing hazards and hazardous products (chemical, biological, etc.) and for ensuring the availability of Material Safety Data Sheets.

To find out more, consult the Prevention, Health and Safety section on the Intranet.

Students committees

ADEPS

Its objective is to bring together the PhD students of the ENS Paris-Saclay during various events to create an united community and develop its network.
It communicates about the world of research through thematic lunches.
It assists PhD students, especially foreigners, in the administrative procedures (registrations, …).

BDE

This body enlivens student life on the campus by organising events, students’ evenings and social occasions (breakfasts, [Pot]s, Christmas meal, etc.).
Its many clubs offer cultural, sports, citizens’ and creative activities, which add to the many associations which are present at the start of every academic year at the Forum of Associations.

It organises the Integration Weekend (WEI), the Nuit aNormale (a gala) and the Point Rencontre [meeting point] (welcoming the new arrivals).

Get involved

GET INVOLVED IN THE SCHOOL’S GOVERNING BODIES!

Governing Board (CA)
The Governing Board is the School’s decision-making body. Under the authority of the School’s President, it determines the general guidelines for the establishment, votes on its budget and assigns the profit and loss statement.

It comprises 31 members, qualified personalities, representatives of partner institutions and elected representatives of the staff and of the students.

Scientific Council (CS)
The Scientific Council is consulted on the guidelines on the School’s training and research policies. It contributes to the educational and scientific evaluation of its activities.

It comprises 25 members, 15 of whom are persons from outside the School and 10 are elected representatives of the staff and students.

Student Life Committee (CVE)
This committee submits opinions to the President on everything concerning studies and living conditions for the students. It gives opinions on the extra-curricular activities provided by the student associations, as well as on the financial files relating to student life.

It is composed of members with voting rights (elected representatives of the students, Chair of the BDE) and of members without voting rights (President of the School, service managers, representatives of the Associations Office and representatives of the students on the Health, Safety, and Working Conditions Committee (CHSCT)).

Health, Safety, and Working Conditions Committee (CHSCT)
The CHSCT has a supervisory and advisory role and acts for the improvement of working conditions and safety in the establishment.

It is supported by a network of 14 prevention assistants and the comments and suggestions made in the occupational health and safety registers.
